Career Closet in Foster City

Ladies, do you have career clothing that you no longer need? Pass it on to the "Career Closet" in Foster City. Volunteers help disadvantaged women gain confidence by dressing them for their job or interview in donated professional clothing. Drop off career style clothing to 1163 Chess Drive, Suite A in Foster City, M-F from 10 am- 2 pm. Career Closet is a non-profit 501c3 and can provide a donation receipt. Call 572-1368 for more information or go to: www.careercloset.org

CALL Primrose

The holidays are over, but the need for donations is not. CALL Primrose is in need of the following items all year long: non-perishable canned and boxed food such as stews, chili, hearty soups, vegetables and fruits, tuna, canned meat, peanut butter and jelly, spaghetti sauce, macaroni & cheese, instant potatoes, rice, beans, hot and cold cereal; perishable foods such as meat, lunch meat, milk, cheese, eggs, yogurt, and travel or full size toiletry items such as deodorant, toothpaste, shampoo, paper towels and toilet tissue. Donations can be dropped off at CALL Primrose, 139 Primrose Road in Burlingame. To learn more about CALL Primrose, visit www.callprimrose.org.

Mills Peninsula Hospital benefit, February 11

The Mills-Peninsula Debutante Ball, a benefit for the Mills Peninsula Hospital Foundation, is on Saturday, February 11 at 6 p.m. at the Kohl Mansion in Burlingame. This year, there are ten debutantes (Katherine Atkeson, Molly Barry, Lauren Corey, Kristina Cullinane, Catherine Drysdale, Maile Pringle, Nicole Schulz, Laura Cox Westbrook, Vivian Wu and Samantha Walsh. This annual event has become THE social event of the year. This year's event will support the purchase of a PET/CT Scanner for the Oncology Center of Excellence. By ensuring the latest technologies for surgery and radiation therapy, the Hospital hopes to make a marked improvement on cancer survivorship in San Mateo County. Last year, the event raised over $200,000 for new technologies at the Hospital. The Mills-Peninsula Debutante Ball is a great way to celebrate everything these young ladies have achieved. It is also a wonderful way for them to give back to their community by supporting their local hospital. This year's Chairman is Mrs. Melanie Ryan and the honorary chairs are local philanthropists, Mrs. Peggy Bort Jones and Sheila O'Connor Burns. Ticket prices start at $350.00 per person. To receive an invitation to the event, please send an email to melanieryan@comcast.net or call 415-699-7926.

CuriOdyssey Weekend Workshop: Animal Enrichment February 18, 2012, 10:30am – 12:00pm

Have you ever wondered why our animal keepers hang paper grocery bags with the bobcats? It's not trash but rather what zookeepers call "enrichment," and it helps stimulate the senses of CuriOdyssey's resident animals. Make an enrichment package, get up-close with wildlife, and observe how our non-releasable animals interact with your creation. This workshop is for both the parent/caregiver and child. Pre-registration and fee required. Recommended for ages 6-11. CuriOdyssey, 1651 Coyote Point Dr., San Mateo, \(650\) 342-7755, www.CuriOdyssey.org Check out the website for other programs running during February.

Please be my guest for the Alzheimer's Association's Third Annual "Reason to Hope" Luncheon at the Crown Plaza, Foster City on May 9th, 2012

As a sponsor for this benefit, I would like to extend this invitation to my neighbors in Hillsborough to be my guest for lunch at this informative event. This luncheon will help you to get a better understanding of the state of the disease, research advancements, resources available to families and the mission of the Alzheimer's Association to help create a "World Without Alzheimer's". In deference to everyone's busy schedule, it promises to be only 1 hour long. At the end of the event, envelopes will be passed out to each attendee to make a confidential donation to the Association—there is no minimum or maximum and all donations are greatly appreciated. If you would like to attend and sit at the same table as your Hillsborough neighbors, please contact me at m.benek@att.net and I will provide you with all the details and answer any questions you may have. I hope you will join us!

9th Annual "Memories in the Making Art & Wine Auction" benefiting the Alzheimer's Association. March 2 2012 at the Computer History Museum 1401 Shoreline Boulevard, Mtn View

Memories in the making, is a unique program of creative expression for individuals with Alzheimer's disease or other dementias. Through art and the creative process these individuals speak to us, offering an essence of themselves. The art they produce is a tangible means of expression, which speaks to families, their professional caregivers and to the public. Join us for a truly lovely event with food, wine and the chance to collect some extraordinary wines as well as bid on a large array of silent auction items to benefit the ongoing research to end Alzheimer's disease. Click here to attend and to see photos of last year's event: http://www.alz.org/norcal/in_my_community_13214.asp

Listings are free and can be submitted to: annmalouf@mac.com prior to the first of every month. If you are NOT interested in receiving Hillsborough Happenings, please sign into HT, go to the MY PROFILE tab, and select NONE under email preferences.
